The Privacy Policy does not apply to the following activities:

- First-party information collected about you by AnalyticsIQ customers. Our customers are responsible for their own personal information collection practices and use of this information for marketing and other purposes. To find out more about our customers' use of first-party information about you, you are encouraged to review the relevant privacy policy of the company who collected your information from you or is sending you advertising. Please consult that company if you have any further questions about its use of information.
- Data collected for AnalyticsIQ's own direct marketing purposes. For information about AnalyticsIQ's processing activities with regard to your personal information collected on AnalyticsIQ websites and applications and used for AnalyticsIQ's own direct marketing purposes, please refer to our website at <https://analytics-iq.com/privacy-policy>.

3. WHICH CATEGORIES AND SPECIFIC PIECES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION DO WE PROCESS?

AnalyticsIQ may process information about you, including information from publicly available sources or third-party data providers.

- Information about you is obtained by AnalyticsIQ from its offline partners and other third parties who may not have a direct relationship with you who collect information from their offline sources.

Information about you may in some cases directly identify you, while in other cases it may only indirectly identify you. Personal information that is collected offline and that can directly identify you may include, for example:

- Name and physical address, email addresses, and telephone numbers;
- Demographic attributes, when tied to other information that identifies you;
- Company data such as the name, size and location of the company you work for and your role within the company;
- Data from marketing opt-in lists, consumer surveys, or publicly available information;
- Derived latitude/longitude from a physical address.

We may associate personal information about you with our Audiences Segments or Profiles as part of the provision of AnalyticsIQ services to our customers and partners:

- Audience Segments are a specific group of consumers that are likely to share a common behavior, preference or lifestyle used for direct marketing by our customers.
  - Example: You are likely in-market for a new mini-van so you are in the AnalyticsIQ Audience Segment for “In-Market for a Mini-Van”
- Profiles are a set of attributes about a specific consumer or device, or a set of multiple consumers or devices sharing common attributes used for marketing by our customers.
  - Example: age bracket 25-45; children in the home; enjoys family cruises; in-market for new mini-van

4. FOR WHAT COMMERCIAL OR BUSINESS PURPOSE DO WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

a) We use personal information to help enable AnalyticsIQ’s customers and partners to market product and services to you via offline and online marketing activities. More specifically, AnalyticsIQ can process information about you:

- i. For advertising on behalf of our AnalyticsIQ customers.
  - Example: A marketing professional working for an auto company wants to market the company’s new mini-van to a specific group of individuals

(also known as an audience) that may be interested in the vehicle. The marketing professional uses AnalyticsIQ to create an audience likely to be in-market for a new mini-van who are also parents to young children. If you are in the audience, you may subsequently see advertisements for the mini-van, such as direct mail piece or an online ad.

- ii. For enabling our AnalyticsIQ customers to personalize their products and services, including site optimization, email personalization and dynamic marketing and advertising optimization.
  - Example: If you are in AnalyticsIQ's predictive audience segment for those who are likely to be in-market for a new mini-van, when you visit an auto company's website, the auto company may display messaging on their website or in a display ad that highlights their new mini-van model.
- iii. For creating modelled audiences for AnalyticsIQ customers' products and services.
  - Example: A marketing professional working for an automotive company wants to find new potential customers who are likely to be interested in purchasing a new mini-van. AnalyticsIQ can help the auto company by identifying key characteristics between the Profiles of those who have recently purchased a new mini-van and other Profiles where a similar interest can be inferred based on these characteristics.
- iv. For campaign measurement, analytics, and development of insights on behalf of our AnalyticsIQ customers.
  - Example: A marketing professional working for an automotive company wants to better understand if the company's marketing campaign for a new mini-van model led to an increase in their vehicle sales among new parents. The marketing professional appends AnalyticsIQ audience segment of "new parents" to their conversion data to understand how many new parents were among those who purchased the mini-van model.
- v. To enable AnalyticsIQ customers and partners to connect your Audience Segments across the various browsers and/or devices you may use for the purposes described in this section.
  - Example: You use several devices (your desktop, smartphone, and tablet) to browse the web. Using your web activity and user-supplied login information, AnalyticsIQ's onboarding and linkage partners have indicated that you are likely the same user across those same devices. An automotive company is now able to display mini-van offers to you (via a de-identified cookie ID or mobile ad ID, for example) on these different devices by targeting AnalyticsIQ's Audience Segments.

b) We use personal information for the business purpose of complying with applicable laws and regulations and to operate our business.
